

DIVINE MERCY & 2ND SUNDAY OF EASTER

April 11, 2010

SUNDAY READINGS

In his third appearance to the apostles after the resurrection, Jesus asks Peter three times if he loves him. Jesus then commissions Peter to feed his sheep. As disciples of Jesus, we too have been commissioned to be bread for one another. Let us seek the Lord's mercy for those times we have failed to love God and one another as we should.

Acts 5:12-16; Revelations 1:9-13, 17-19;
John 20:19-31

Next Week:

Acts 5:27-32, 40-41; Revelations 5:11-14;
John 21:1-19

Rachel's Corner

Ironically, though women seek out abortion as a solution to stressful circumstances, abortion itself can become a contributor to long-lasting stress of a different kind. Many women suffer from flashbacks, depression, anger and self-punishing behaviors. We can help.

Healing and hope are awaiting you on a Rachel's Vineyard Retreat™.

Welcome back to non-practicing Catholics

Are you a Catholic who has been away from the church? Have you felt something was missing from your life – a spiritual dimension? Queen of Angels Parish has a program to help people explore a return to the sacraments and regular church attendance. The RETURNING CATHOLICS Program provides a wonderful opportunity for people to ask questions about their faith in an encouraging and non-threatening manner.

The RETURNING CATHOLICS Program will meet Saturday, April 17 and Saturday April 24, in the St. Benedict Room in the Parish Hall (two doors west of the church on 11th Street). The sessions start at 1:00 P.M. and will conclude at 2:30 P.M.

For information, without any obligation, please call the Parish Office or Betty Halberg 928-3341.
