

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

April 25, 2010

SUNDAY READINGS

As disciples of Jesus, we have been given a new commandment: to love one another. This is not always an easy task, but with the grace of God all things are possible. Gathered as God's holy family, let us seek the Lord's mercy and compassion for the times we have not loved God and one another as we should.

Queen of Angels Principal Search Update

Holy Week & Easter Week provided a much needed respite from the process, but we are back on track. We should all be proud of our little school; we have had 15 people express an interest in the position, which is truly phenomenal! Of these, 12 people actually filled out the Archdiocesan online application, so you can imagine the work involved in reviewing all of that information. We are preparing for interviews and hope to have a final decision by early to mid-May. Thank you for your patience during this challenging, yet enlightening, process.

An Encounter With Christ

For some time now our Holy Father and our pastor, Father Nathe, have been encouraging us to live our lives as Catholics to the fullest by having a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. A beautiful way to help bring this about is by making a Cursillo retreat weekend. Cursillo, which stands for a short course in Christianity, is a joyous workshop in the fundamentals of our beautiful Catholic faith where everyone learns by experiencing a living community. It is an encounter with Jesus.

Cursillo is for you if you feel called to a deeper commitment to your faith. The upcoming Cursillos will be held at the Lakeview Christian Conference Center in Auburn, WA. The Cursillo for men will be held from May 13-16. The one for women will be April 28 at the same location. Transportation will be provided. You are invited to pray about this to see if God is calling you to this experience. For more information call Ray Henninger at 681-2986 or Marian Trebon at 681-8019.

HEALING MINISTRY

A healing prayer service will be offered at 7 PM in the evening on the 4th Tuesday of the month at St Joseph Parish in Sequim (this Tuesday April 27th). After some spiritual readings and meditations, teams will be available to pray a short prayer over those wishing prayer. For one-on-one prayer time sessions, St Joseph's will offer prayer teams in the classrooms after the 8:30 and 10:30 masses on the 2nd Sunday of the month (May 9th). Individual prayer time is also available by calling these Ministry Team Members: Ada Lepsik (of Queen of Angels) or Art Halls (of St Joseph's).
